Understanding the Structure and Key: Our God is written in the key of C major, which is a relatively easy key for many musicians to play. The song is in a 4/4 time signature, meaning there are four beats in each measure and the tempo is typically around 72 bpm. The structure of the song is quite simple, with verses, choruses, and a bridge.

Breaking Down the Chords: The main chords used in Our God are C (the root chord of the song, giving it a bright and open feeling), G (provides a contrasting sound to the C major, adding a touch of depth and emotion), Am (adds a minor feel, creating a sense of longing and anticipation), F (resolves the Am chord, leading back to the C major and creating a sense of progression), Dm (adds a minor chord to the mix, providing a contrasting sound to the major chords), and Em (another minor chord used in the bridge, adding a touch of somberness).
